I was pleased to announce last Sunday that our Church Warden, Scott Bright, who attended a Bishops Advisory Panel (BAP) recently to test his vocation to ordained ministry, has been recommended to train full-time for the ministry. The Bishop of Sheffield, the Rt Rev Dr Pete Wilcox has accepted this recommendation and, all being well, Scott will begin training in September for two years at Cranmer Hall Theological College in Durham, where our Vicar David trained. Scott will stand down as Church Warden at the Annual Vestry Meeting in April. On behalf of the church family we offer our sincere congratulations to Scott, and also hold Coral and Aurora in our prayers. David

St Nicholas Thorne seeks to be a church where all can meet with the Risen Lord Jesus, where all can belong and be accepted, where faith is strengthened and healing and wholeness found.
