From the Editor

Thanks again to all those people who have sent in pictures of your work. Without these I would not be able to produce a newsletter. There are still a good many who have not sent in anything for the newsletter yet so please get your thinking caps on and produce something for me. If you need help in doing this then either email me or give me a call, my telephone number and email address is listed on page two of this magazine. I am sure we can overcome any difficulties you may be experiencing.

I read in the paper where the George Eliot Hospital had been asked by the NHS to organise their staff for a possible immunisation programme against Covid-19 starting hopefully before Christmas. So there is a glimmer of light at the end of the tunnel. I expect it will take a considerable time before the vaccine can be administered to the general public but here's hoping!

If you long to see a woodturning demonstration and you own a computer why not turn to page 35 where you will see details of an online demonstration organised by Chestnut Products. I am sure you would be made most welcome at one of these online gatherings.

Graham

Chairman's Jottings

Here's hoping all our members are keeping well and trying to keep busy.

Coventry has been put to level 2 but Coombe Abbey remains at level 1. So our little chats and cups of tea at Coombe on Wednesday and Friday can continue. These details may change before this goes to press but all will be contacted (re this).

Brian Edwards

I have spoken to the Coombe management and when the workshop would be able to open up a total of 3 members would be allowed into the workshop at any time, two persons turning and one supervising. This looks like it could be awkward but we will try to work through it, until more changes happen, (Hopefully for the better).

The cafe is still open and our Wed & Fri morning chats are still going ahead. All welcome providing we observe the social distancing rules, wearing masks and hand washing.

I wish you all the best now and in the next few months.
Please stay safe.
Keep turning
Brian.

3-Piece Mini Carbide Turning Tool Set

The Mini Carbide Turning Tool Set is ideal for turning small projects, such as boxes and goblets, and is also extremely useful for turning pens in wood and acrylics. The set consists of three tools, each with a rubber handle for extra grip and comfort to reduce fatigue. The carbide cutters will stay sharp for a long time and when required, they can be rotated to give a fresh edge or can simply be replaced. Each tool features its own cutting profile; round, square and diamond-shaped, perfect for roughing out, finishing and fine detail work.

"This set is really good and exceeds my expectations. A good selection of tools presented in a robust carry / storage case. Really good value for money."

Work by John Morgan

Hi Graham

Finished the Planter Base.

I did a slightly different pattern on the base.

It now stands 18 inches high.

It will have a real plant in when we get a liner but Sara likes her Artificial ones as-well.

Below is my rebuilt open segment jig.
I have added motor control for the Vertical axis.
I have put a video on Facebook showing it working if you use it.

Work by Malcolm Thorpe

Hi Graham

Sorry not to have written before, despite shielding during the lockdown I never seemed to have the time to be organised. I spent a lot of time in both the workshop and the garden. I have been learning to use my newly finished rose engine and made several oval boxes that were decorated on the ordinary ornamental lathe by a process called 'Double counting', using patterns from a 1853 book by Major James Ash. The family have kept me busy with framing needlecraft, obsolete Warhammer scenery and a Jeff Koons balloon dog. I met a wood feller on one of the few trips out and filled the car with some interesting bits of timber. I had a go at green woodturning and learnt a valuable lesson roughing out a green oak bowl 'Don't let the shavings land on anything metal and clean up the tools immediately'. I had a load of wood for burning, but some pieces were too good to burn, so I now have some apples, pears and bud vases, I did not need but enjoyed making.

An Appeal by Eric Taylor

You may be aware that at the AGM in January 2020 Graham Ball our Newsletter editor gave 12 months notice of his intention to resign from the position of Editor. Some thought that a replacement had come forward already but this was not the case so we are still looking for a volunteer to take on the role of editor of our magazine.

Graham has told me that he would be willing to help the new editor to gradually take over if necessary, and knowing Graham I am sure he will have plenty of useful tips and help to pass on to the eventual new editor.

The newsletter produced in its present format over the last fifteen years is sent to all club members and some people in other clubs and also to the sponsors of the magazine, and is also on the club's web-site from which it can be downloaded worldwide. It would be a great loss if we could not carry on producing this useful and interesting communication, therefore I appeal for volunteers to come forward to take over and carry on producing our monthly newsletter.

To register your interest or to answer any questions you may have.

News by Margaret Mitchell-King

Dear Graham,

Thank you for continuing to email me a copy of the Coombe Abbey Newsletter. I always enjoy keeping up with the club news. The Covid pandemic has obviously changed the way you can meet, even for committee meetings, and I feel certain your skills in Zoom etc, have been sharpened along with your bevels!!!! In the hope that you will still be awarding the Austin and Rhodes trophies this year, possibly virtually and not as a socially distanced group, I thought past and future winners may like to read the update on the boys.

Austin went out to Canada after his GCSEs two years ago, and became a student-athlete at The Hill Academy in Ontario, pursuing his passion for ice hockey. Both boys were members of the Coventry Blaze Ice Hockey

Academy and Austin went on to play for GB as an U18 player (Forward), the team winning Gold in the IIHF World Championships in 2018. He moved on to play with the GB U20s, the team winning the 2020 IIHF World Championships Silver medal in January this year. Sadly he has been denied his last chance to play as an U20s in the next World Championships, because it has already been cancelled for January 2021! After finishing the equivalent of his A levels and having been accepted for Loughborough University for September 2021, Austin signed to play for

Brampton Admirals in the OHL

Rhodes and Austin Mitchell-King

(Ontario Hockey League), one of the few Brits who is eligible to sign for a Canadian team. However, due to the pandemic, their season has been delayed (we hope not postponed), so his gap year isn't going quite to plan! He awaits the call from his Coach over there, and meanwhile trains back in Coventry or wherever he can get ice.

Rhodes on the other hand, has returned to Canada and is in his final year at The Hill Academy, who have relocated for this new academic year to Caledon, Ontario, to a rather superb campus, with a lake, mountains and forest. The school has resumed training but matches may not start until December and will be restricted to Canada, rather than their usual trips down to the States. Last year Rhodes made the GB U18s team (Defence) but their World Championships, being later than those of the U20s, fell victim to the pandemic. He has been asked to trial for them again this year, because at present, the IIHF are still hoping to run the World Championships for this age group in April 2021. We do not hold out too many hopes but just take one day at a time!

So, I think their grandfather would have been proud of them and I hope the winners of their two respective trophies enjoy knowing what the namesakes are up to.

I attach a couple photos, the first taken last year, with Rhodes in The Hill Academy black shirt, and Austin in the red. The second was taken back home in the summer, again, Rhodes is on the left.

All good wishes to every member of the Club, and we hope you all remain safe and healthy.

Margaret Mitchell-King

Rhodes & Austin Mitchell-King.

I hope that you are keeping well.

Please find attached photographs of my just completed woodturning projects. Pot-pourri bowl flowers painted in acrylic paint and coated with melamine spray - satin finish. Platter coated with food-safe liq-

I have just finished my little drummer. I suppose you would describe it as being a mixed media, as I have used perspex and other materials - but it is mostly woodturning.

For Sale - Axminster Perform CCL with Extras

I'm selling my wood lathe and wanted to share it with you before putting on eBay. I've had it for a few years and it's only had light use. It is all in very good condition and well looked after.

As you can see, I have collected many tools, extras and wood that I'm also looking to move on. The photos aren't extensive but show a good amount of the important things, all that are included in the sale.

I'm looking for a fair price and open to offers. It looks like the lathe itself might be worth around £300+. With the newly purchased Axminster chuck, pen mandrel, all of the chisels and wood stock, I imagine £500+ would be reasonable for all of it. But, like I say, I'm looking for a fair price and open to offers and suggestions on selling price. I might even be able to deliver it to someone local. I'd be very happy with a £500 cash sale.
