

Don't just take our word for it...

Here is what some of our participants from last year's competition had to say about The Land Sydney Royal Showgirl Competition:

"Through the showgirl movement I have met some incredible people and made some wonderful friendships. This past week has been a very empowering experience, I have been surrounded by such a diverse group of women, all championing agriculture in different ways".

Maisie Morrow, The Land Sydney Royal Showgirl 2017 - Winner

"Being part of the Showgirl movement has given me so many opportunities. I have become more involved in my local community, more passionate about rural Australia and it's importance, and I've learnt so much about myself: what my goals are, what my strengths and weaknesses are, and who I want to be. I've also had a ball and met some incredible, like minded and inspiring people".

Emma Gorman, The Land Sydney Royal Showgirl 2017 - First Runner Up

"I have developed so many skills and been involved in wonderful opportunities since entering the Showgirl movement. Often the skills I have learnt have set me in good stead for everyday life and have enabled me to be more involved in my community. I have particularly enjoyed networking with other young women and people within my local community to address concerns and celebrate our region".

Isabel Hawken, The Land Sydney Royal Showgirl 2017 - Second Runner Up

Are you actively involved with your local community or Show? Or do you know someone who is?

The Land Sydney Royal Showgirl Competition is a State wide program run by the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW (RAS). The program identifies female ambassadors to promote the Sydney Royal Easter Show, and the Agricultural Show movement across NSW.

If you're female and aged between 18 - 25 and a permanent resident of Australia, contact your local Show society for the opportunity of a lifetime.

What are the benefits?

The Land Sydney Royal Showgirl competition offers the:

- opportunity for personal and professional development
- chance to make great contacts and network with industry leaders
- develop life skills and be recognised for your hard work

The sixteen finalists also receive the opportunity to represent your NSW zone for seven days at the Sydney Royal Easter Show with accommodation, meals and travel expenses paid.

Also on offer are prize monies awarded to the State finalists:

- Winner: $7,500
- First Runner Up: $3,500
- Second Runner Up: $2,000

The winner acts as an ambassador for NSW during her reign and represents the RAS, Agricultural Societies Council (ASC) and her local Show society at functions during the year.
