

Related Initiatives

Initiatives relevant for the Global Policy Coherence project

5 Initiatives

CITES - The Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora

CITES (the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora) aims to ensure that international trade of species of wild animals and plants does not threaten their survival. The text of the Convention was signed in 1973...

View Initiative (Webpage - www.cites.org)

DDI - Diamond Development Initiative

The Diamond Development Initiative was created to gather all interested parties into a process that will address, in a comprehensive way, the political, social and economic challenges facing the artisanal diamond mining sector in order to optimize...

View Initiative (Webpage - www.ddiglobal.org)

FLEGT - Forest Law Enforcement, Governance and Trade

Illegal logging and deforestation cause severe environmental damage, including a loss of biodiversity and impacts on climate change. The livelihoods of local communities who depend on forests ? including indigenous people - are affected. ...

View Initiative (Webpage - ec.europa.eu)

GEMAP - Governance and Economic Management Assistance Program

The Liberia Governance and Economic Management Assistance Program (GEMAP) is a partnership between the Government of Liberia (GOL) and the international community that seeks to build a system of economic governance to promote accountability,...

View Initiative (Webpage - www.gemapliberia.org)

Trade and Climate Change

Since 1999, IISD has explored the linkages between trade and climate change. Our work continues to focus on defining areas of linkage, and identifying ways in which trade policy might effectively support the objectives of addressing climate...

View Initiative (Webpage - www.iisd.org)