Manage In Chrome. Manage In Explorer. Manage In Safari. Brilliantly dark and disturbing Absolutely couldn't put it down , it's so good! All I want to do for the rest of the day is find out what's at the bottom of it all. Too good. The perfect poolside read. The perfect anywhere read , to be honest. This book is riveting, moving , and out in August. Highest possible level of recommendation. Utterly compelling. I had an unrelentingly pleasurable and a thrilling-for-God's-sake-tell-me-what-happened sensation in my stomach for the entire read Rich, dark and intricately twisted , this enthralling whodunnit mixes family saga with domestic noir to brilliantly chilling effect. The excitement , the intrigue , the sheer pleasure of reading taboo-breaking work! I swear I didn't breathe the whole time I was reading. Lisa Jewell is a maestro at creating tension, mystery and so many twists but always delivering a truly satisfying ending.

I bolted this down in one sitting and was then furious for not pacing myself. Sinister and gripping , this is a pacy and intoxicating read about a house with some very dark secrets. This sharply characterized mystery is as chilling as it is engrossing. It will make you think twice about who you invite across your threshold. This is my pick of the thrillers out this month Lisa Jewell is brilliant at creating a menacing atmosphere and this is almost unbelievably tense at times. With its eerie, abandoned home and damaged characters, you'll need a will of iron to put this all-consuming read down before the end. Jewell has such a rare gift for storytelling '. So compelling, twisty-turny and riveting. I just couldn't stop reading. Lisa Jewell is the most wonderful writer , and funnily enough we've written about a similar theme with our new books - cults, in microcosm and macrocosm. I can't rant enough about how brilliant The Family Upstairs is. Featuring two entangled families and a house with the darkest of secrets, this is a compulsive new thriller from Lisa Jewell. This is a deeply twisted story of dysfunctional missing siblings and an insidious cult. Lisa Jewell demonstrates once again that she isn't afraid of pushing domestic noir to the crevices of its darkest extremes. Lisa Jewell is brilliant at creating a menacing atmosphere and this is almost unbearably tense at times, with a knock-the-wind-out-of-you ending. From the first page we were hooked. If you've got a lazy day planned over the Christmas break, this is the type of novel you could read in a day. It makes us shiver just sharing the plot and we guarantee you'll be on the edge of your seats throughout.

From a stack of amazing crime novels in , I have to choose The Family Upstairs. Jewell is brilliant at twisting plot strands from the past and present into a tense story that I read in one sitting. I'm still thinking about the ending! Of the crop of great thrillers out this year, this is my pick [An enthralling tale rich in psychological suspense that mixes family saga with domestic noir. The Family Upstairs: The #1 bestseller and gripping Richard & Judy Book Club pick by Jewell, Lisa

I read it in one sitting. Totally captivated. So dark and cruel and yet still somehow still bearable because her characters are - as ever - among the most fascinating anyone ever writes. A stunning psychological thriller with a dark family story at its centre. Full of atmosphere and menace. I was gripped from the first page. Yet another brilliant novel Just mesmerising. Twisty and engrossing story of betrayal and redemption. Reminiscent of Donna Tartt in scope and quality. Absolutely brilliant. Few writers of psychological suspense devise such swift, slippery plots ; fewer still people their stories with characters so human and complex. Just finished The Family Upstairs and I'm telling you it's her best book yet - human, gripping, deeply felt, seriously twisty and skilfully plotted. I had hoped to save The Family Upstairs for my holiday, but failed miserably by devouring it as soon as it arrived. I was hooked from the first page , I think it's her best yet and hands down my favourite book so far this year.

It's an intriguing, claustrophobic and compelling mystery about a family that comes to stay and refuses to leave. I hugely enjoyed it and couldn't put it down. I absolutely loved The Family Upstairs. Intriguing, absorbing, unputdownable with characters so real they jump from the page. Couldn't put it down. Wish I'd written it. With characters that light up the pages , a twisty plot which unravels at perfect pace, and a house rammed with the darkest secrets , it's brilliant. It takes huge talent to establish a whole world in the turn of two pages. Great characterisation, a fascinating and dark set up and a great conclusion. She's always great but this is next level stuff. Lisa's Jewell's The Family Upstairs glitters like a blade and cuts even deeper. I was hooked from the first page. I think it's her best yet and hands down my favourite book so far this year. Deliciously dark and twisty with characters who live on in your head. Lisa Jewell just keeps getting better and better. Lisa Jewell is brilliant at creating a menacing atmosphere and this is almost unbelievably tense at times. This one succeeded!! Hooked from page one! 'I totally adored this book. All of Lisa Jewell's books are fabulous, but something about this one is extra special. Definitely worth reading - as long you like reading into the night! I devoured it. Clever would be an understatement. And those last pages left me with chills.

The concept had me intrigued and the execution had me captivated. Seller Inventory APE Title: The Family Upstairs: The 1 bestseller and Book Description Paperback. Condition: Used; Good.
